

Test Bank

Chapter 2: Health and disease in society

1. Which of the following include the three key areas of public health practice?

- a. health improvement, service improvement, health disorders
- b. health protection, health disorders, service improvement
- c. health protection, health improvement, service improvement
- d. health disorders, health protection, health improvement

Ans: C

2. What are the three key areas identified by WHO for promoting worldwide health?

- a. inequalities, challenges, health actions
- b. health actions, challenges, health disorders,
- c. health actions, health disorders, inequalities,
- d. inequalities, challenges, health disorders

Ans: D

3. Which of the following is not one of the key elements for health promotion specified by WHO?

- a. exercise
- b. health literacy
- c. healthy cities
- d. good governance for health

Ans: A

4. Which of the following is not one of the three main patterns of distribution of infectious diseases?

- a. epidemic

- b. pandemic
- c. subdemic
- d. endemic

Ans: C