

- 32.  $f(x) = \frac{x}{x+1}$  is continuous everywhere on its domain, which consists of all real numbers except  $x = -1$ . It is discontinuous nowhere.