Mr. and Mrs. William Carson
3276 Lakeline Drive
San Diego, CA

Dear William and Sheila,

Thanks for requesting my advice concerning the tax treatment of your brother Jerry. I have researched your question and am sorry to say that you cannot claim Jerry as a qualifying child.

Although Jerry meets the relationship, domicile, joint return, citizenship, and self-support test, he does not meet the age test. Even though he is a full-time student and under the age of 24, in order to be your qualifying child, he must be younger than at least one of you.

Although you can't claim him as a qualifying child, there is a possibility that you could claim Jerry as a qualifying relative if he makes less than $3,900.

My conclusion is based upon the facts that you have provided me. I'm sorry that the news was not more favorable. If you have any questions or would like further explanation, please don't hesitate to call.

Sincerely,
Trevor Malcolm

2. Ethics Solution:

Individuals who are married as of the last day of the tax year are considered to be married. Married taxpayers have only two filing status options: married filing joint or married filing separate. In order to file single, taxpayers must be unmarried or legally separated from their spouse as of the last day of the tax year. Not only would it be unethical for Jason and Mary to file single, it would be against the law.
