

- 1) Provincial EMS regulations are set by who?
- a. Transport Canada
  - b. the Department of Health and Welfare
  - c. the Paramedic Association of Canada
  - d. the individual province

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 3

NOCP: 1.4.a

- 2) Which of the following is the best definition of the Emergency Medical Services system?
- a. group of publicly owned ambulances that serve an area
  - b. communications network for fire, police, and rescue units
  - c. trauma system for people who have no medical insurance
  - d. network of resources that provide care to the ill or injured

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 2

NOCP: 1.1.g

- 3) The EMR is one link in the chain of services that forms what system?
- a. Health and Welfare (HWS) system
  - b. Emergency Medical Services (EMS) system
  - c. Community Emergency Outreach (CEO) system
  - d. Patient Emergency Care Response (PCR) system

Answer: b

Type: MC

Page Reference: 2

NOCP: 1.1.g

- 4) As per the National Occupational Competency Profiles, which is the prehospital care provider with the highest level of training?
- a. Primary Care Paramedic
  - b. Advanced Care Paramedic
  - c. EMR

d. Critical Care Paramedic

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 5 & appendix

NOCP: 1.1.g

5) The EMR may be the first person on the scene with which of the following?

- a. CPR accreditation
- b. an ambulance or other transport
- c. a radio system
- d. emergency medical training

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 4

NOCP: N/A

6) As an EMR your most important role is what?

- a. administering medication to patients who need it
- b. performing advanced techniques such as cardiac monitoring
- c. restraining violent or threatening patients
- d. protecting yourself and your crew

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 6

NOCP: 3.3.a

7) Reading professional journals dedicated to EMS issues is an example of what?

- a. part of medical oversight
- b. necessary only for EMR's who intend to become Paramedics
- c. unnecessary because prehospital care does not change much or often
- d. part of professional development for all EMR's and Paramedics

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 7

NOCP: 1.2.c

8) Why is maintaining a professional appearance as an EMR important?

- a. it is a local, provincial, and federal requirement
- b. it lets bystanders know that you are important
- c. it allows other rescuers to recognize you from your dress
- d. it instills confidence in patients and their families

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 7

NOCP: 1.1.c

9) An EMR provides emergency care to which of the following?

- a. patients born in Canada
- b. patients who can pay for the service
- c. the elderly, infants, and children
- d. those people who are ill or injured

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 2

NOCP: 1.1.i

10) To what does the term 'medical oversight' refer to?

- a. every EMS system's need to have a physician as medical director
- b. the need for a physician to be present during prehospital care
- c. the requirement that physicians must document prehospital care
- d. an error caused by the EMR or other EMS responder

Answer: a

Type: MC

Page Reference: 8

NOCP: 1.4.a

11) The listing of accepted practices for EMR's in your area is referred to as what?

- a. resource management
- b. on-line medical control

- c. trauma systems
- d. protocols

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 8

NOCP: 1.3.a

12) The medical director of your EMS system has helped write the protocols for your region. What is this called?

- a. direct medical control
- b. resource management
- c. universal access
- d. indirect medical control

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 8

NOCP: 1.3.a

13) You are asked to explain 'direct medical control' to a new EMR. Your best explanation would be that direct medical control occurs when a _____.

- a. physician gives medical advice to an EMR who is on scene
- b. medical director reviews runs and directs change within the system
- c. physician writes protocols that describe correct emergency care
- d. medical director is at the scene and giving emergency care to a patient

Answer: a

Type: MC

Page Reference: 8

NOCP: 1.3.a

14) Who provides regulation of the EMS system?

- a. trauma centers and other hospitals
- b. the Paramedic Association of Canada
- c. each ambulance or fire district
- d. the individual provinces

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 3

NOCP: 1.4.a

15) When people who need help call 9-1-1, where are their calls received?

- a. the local provincial seat
- b. the nearest public rescue squad
- c. a private ambulance company
- d. a public safety answering point

Answer: d

Type: MC

Page Reference: 4

NOCP:1.1.g

16) 9-1-1 is regarded as a universal number. Which of the following is considered a benefit of a universal number?

- a. it is staffed by emergency Medical Dispatchers
- b. it is staffed by emergency room attendants
- c. it connects directly to the nearest ambulance station
- d. it connects directly to medical direction

Answer: a

Type: MC

Page Reference: 4

NOPC: 1.1.g

17) The first 60 minutes following an accident are referred to as the _____?

- a. golden time
- b. golden Hour
- c. platinum time
- d. platinum time

Answer: b

Type: MC

Page reference: 2

NOCP: 1.1.j

18) As an EMR which classic component of an EMS do you fall under?

- a. regulation and policy
- b. human resources
- c. transportation
- d. trauma systems

Answer: b

Type: MC

Page reference: 3 & 4

NOCP: 1.4.a

19) Which of the following is part of the role of an EMR?

- a. participation in record keeping
- b. participation in scene clean up
- c. review and audit of records
- d. review of past performance

Answer: b

Type: MC

Page reference: 7

NOCP: 1.3.c

20) Who's responsibility is it to keep your knowledge and skills up to date?

- a. yours
- b. your employers
- c. your professional association
- d. your provincial regulator

Answer: a

Type: MC

Page reference: 7

NOCP: 1.2.a