

1. How many hours are there in a week? _____
2. How many hours should you spend studying outside of class for each hour spent in class?

3. A good way to learn something is to explain ideas and concepts in your own words to others in
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. Which of the following is NOT a good daily study practice?
 - a. Attend classes regularly
 - b. Keep up with the reading
 - c. Get help right away
 - d. Drink plenty of caffeine
 - e. Take good notes
 - f. Form study groups
5. Volunteering is a good way to feel connected to your community.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Engineering organizations are only for practicing engineers and not for engineering students.
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. The best time to discuss your graduation plan with your advisor is during the year in which you plan to graduate.
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. It's good practice to have your questions formulated and well thought out before you go to see your professor.

- a. True
- b. False

9. The best use of a study group is to

- a. have your questions answered.
- b. come prepared to discuss appropriate materials.
- c. receive tutoring.

10. Only a few people need to participate in a study group.

- a. True
- b. False

11. It's a good idea to wait until the night before the exam to study.

- a. True
- b. False

12. It's a good idea to study for exams on a daily basis.

- a. True
- b. False

13. Give two reasons why it's important to get to know upper-division engineering students.

14. Describe two benefits of getting involved with a professional engineering organization.

15. Volunteering is a way to develop additional important skills such as communication, management, or supervisory skills that may not be taught in your classes.

- a. True
- b. False