

Test Bank

Multiple Choice Questions

Difficulty: 1 = Easy; 2 = Medium; 3 = Challenging

Choose the best possible answer for each of the following:

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Early societies used infanticide
 - a. as a solution for unwanted children.
 - b. as a form of child labor.
 - c. as a way to teach children.
 - d. as a discipline method.

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

2. With the dawn of the industrial revolution came new ways of using children in the workforce. Children were used predominantly because
 - a. they could work long hours without tiring like adults would.
 - b. they would do what their parents told them.
 - c. their smaller hands and bodies enabled them to do things adults could not.
 - d. their parents paid to have them employed so they wouldn't have to take care of them.

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

3. What was one of the reasons Marian Wright Edelman founded the Children's Defense Fund?
 - a. to reform the juvenile justice system
 - b. to promote child labor practices
 - c. to end unfair adoption practices
 - d. to help children find employment

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

4. The National Child Labor Committee was organized in 1904
 - a. in accordance with the Children's Defense Law.
 - b. to create reforms for working children.
 - c. as a result of the efforts of Charles Loring Brace.
 - d. by the members of the White House Conference.

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

5. Which of the following children would have been placed in the Carrie Steele Orphan Home in Atlanta?
 - a. an American-Indian boy
 - b. a Caucasian boy
 - c. an African-American girl
 - d. a Vietnamese girl

Bloom's Level: Comprehension

6. What was an early forerunner of family preservation, which would have a significant influence on permanency planning efforts in later years?
- The Public Health Act of 1987
 - The Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978
 - The Child Rights Act of 1990
 - The Child Treatment Act of 1962

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

7. Carol is a mother of 5. She knows that she needs to make sure they eat balanced meals and go to bed on time, but she is not sure how to go about doing this. Carol is experiencing
- parental rejection.
 - maternal isolation.
 - intrarole conflict.
 - character deficiency.

Bloom's Level: Application

8. An example of an advocacy agency for children is
- the Carrie Steele Orphan Home.
 - the Diverse Population Foundation.
 - the Native American Community.
 - the Children's Defense Fund.

Bloom's Level: Comprehension

9. Jessie has a hard time believing that her friends will actually be supportive of her when she needs them. She is most likely suffering from
- interrole conflict
 - child incapacity
 - attachment disorder
 - role rejection

Bloom's Level: Application

10. This approach aims to help those being served gain a sense of control and empowerment that can lead to healing based on a child's prior experiences.
- Trauma informed practice
 - Collaborative
 - Individualized
 - Family centered

Bloom's Level: Knowledge

Short Answer Questions

1. Why did the Greeks and Romans practice infanticide?

Bloom's Level: Comprehension

2. What is an example of a problem a child laborer during or after the Industrial Revolution might have experienced?

Bloom's Level: Comprehension

3. What is the difference between role rejection and interrole conflict?