

1                      Researchers discovered that those who benefited from Food Stamps in childhood showed a lower incidence of metabolic syndrome.

<https://selldocx.com/products/test-bank-family-policy-matters-3e-bogenschneider>

(A    True            Answer:
)                      (A) True

(B    False           Feedback: p. 5
)

How does SCHIP help families?
Answer:

2

Feedback: p. 5, 10, 16

How did the Occupy Movement "shift the national conversation" and change the world?
Answer:

3

Feedback: pp. 6-7

Give an example of grassroots activism.
Answer:

4

Feedback: p. 9

What negative consequences could children experience due to the constant fluctuation of families of the American household?
Answer:

5

Feedback: Behavioral and emotional problems p. 32

In what ways are contemporary American families missing out by no longer engaging in customs that encourage community family support such as church or neighborhood gatherings?
Answer:

6

Feedback: p. 34

Name six family policy areas where government spending has recently increased.
Answer:

7

Feedback: p. 34

What is the main purpose of the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR)?
Answer:

8

Feedback: pp. 28, 39

What is the first demographic transition? When did it occur?

Answer:

9

Feedback: p. 30 decline in mortality; decline in fertility

What is the second demographic transition? When did it begin?

Answer:

10

Feedback: p. 30 delays in fertility and marriage, increase in cohabitation, increase in divorce, increase in nonmarital childbearing, increase in mothers who work

What is meant by "diverging destinies," which are thought to result from the second demographic transition?

Answer:

11

Feedback: p. 30 two paths for women resulting in advantages for some children and disadvantages for others.

What is a family impact analysis?

Answer:

12

Feedback: pp. 27, 39

Name two political movements mentioned by Bogenschneider and their impacts on revolutionizing public policy.

Answer:

13

Explain the role of family in society.

Answer:

14

To what or whom can the responsibility for the marginalization of families in policymaking be attributed?

Answer:

15

Feedback: p. 30

What is Head Start? Which population benefits from this program?

Answer:

16

Feedback: p. 6

- 17      Give three explanations for the marginalization of families in policymaking.
Answer:
- 18      What changes have occurred in family life during the last half century? Provide data that indicate how extensive these changes have been.
Answer:
- 19      The Tea Party is an anti-grassroots movement that began as a call for increased government involvement.
- (A      Answer:
) True      (B) False
- (B      Feedback: p. 7
) False
- 20      When a group of workers represented by a trade union bands together to stand up for better pay and working conditions, they are exercising their solidarity rights.
- (A      Answer:
) True      (B) False
- (B      Feedback: p. 7 They are exercising their collective bargaining rights.
) False
- 21      Though a difficult task, policies have managed to keep up with the family demographic transitions of the past century.
- (A      Answer:
) True      (B) False
- (B      Feedback: p. 35
) False
- 22      Policymakers are better equipped to deal with the impacts of unemployment and low-income employment on family structure than other poverty issues such as lack of food and housing.
- (A      Answer:
) True      (B) False
- (B      Feedback: p. 35
) False
- 23      There are currently no formal entities assuming the responsibility of promoting family policies in the United States.

(A True    Answer:
) (A) True

(B False    Feedback: p. 36
)

24                      Based on 2010 U.S. Census data, American Indians have the highest incidence of childhood poverty as compared to other races.

(A True    Answer:
) (B) False

(B False    Feedback: p. 33
)

25                      Seasoned politicians are the driving force behind most successful political activism.

(A True    Answer:
) (B)False

(B False
)

26                      Respite care provides a government funded child care service for single parents.

(A True    Answer:
) (B)False

(B False
)

27                      Policymakers' primary consideration is the effects of policy on families.

(A True    Answer:
) (B)False

(B False
)

28                      There are public and private aspects to family that integrate to make policy-making relevant to families and those who work with them.

Answer:

(A
) True

(A) True

(B
) False

29 Psychologists spearheaded the movement to educate families about family life and functioning.

(A
) True

Answer:
(B) False

(B
) False

Feedback: pg. 28

30 Researchers have correlated a high incidence of psychiatric disorders with marital dissatisfaction.

(A
) True

Answer:
(A) True

(B
) False

Feedback: p. 28

31 Research suggests higher income is associated with higher academic achievements.

(A
) True

Answer:
(A) True

(B
) False

Feedback: pg. 31

32 Give three explanations for the marginalization of families in policymaking.

Answer:

Which societal class was thought to be most negatively impacted by the "Great Recession?"

33 Answer:

Feedback: pg 32