

AP TEST PRACTICE: Chapter 1

Questions assume cumulative knowledge from this chapter.

MULTIPLE CHOICE Use the image on the bottom of page 11 and your knowledge of world history to answer questions 1–3.

1. The image best reflects which of the following developments in paleolithic society?
A The creation of gender-specific roles dominated by men
B A ritualistic understanding and use of the environment
C The use and adaptation of available technologies
D The predominance of large communities to ensure survival
2. Paleolithic economies, within the context of the image, were most strongly characterized by which of the following?
A Semi-permanent settlements of a pastoral nature
B Scavengers prone to wandering in search of food
C Permanent settlements based on agriculture
D Mobile societies of hunters and gatherers
3. Historians wishing to argue that the peopling of the world resulted most directly from the paleolithic use of tools would best use which piece of evidence to support their claim?
A The development of reliable food sources resulting in increased populations
B The migration of groups into less temperate climates
C The development of expression in the forms of art and language
D The beginnings of trade and social interaction between communities

SHORT ANSWER Use your knowledge of world history to answer questions 4–5.

4. Use the map on pages 18–19 and your knowledge of world history to answer parts A and B.
A Identify and explain TWO developments that spread along with agriculture as illustrated by the map.
B Identify and explain the role of agricultural development in social stratification.
5. Answer parts A and B.
A Identify and explain TWO key components of paleolithic society.
B Identify and explain the KEY advancement that distinguished neolithic society from paleolithic society.

LONG ESSAY Develop a thoughtful and thorough historical argument that answers the question below. Begin your essay with a thesis statement and support it with relevant historical evidence.

6. Periodization Using specific examples, analyze the impact of the Neolithic Revolution upon the development of human society.