

Chapter 02 Labour and Employment Standards

True / False Questions

1. An employer can offer compensation and benefits better than those outlined in employment standards legislation.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-01 Employment Standards

2. An Ontario employee may face disciplinary action for refusing to work more than 8 hours in one day, even if the employer does not have a written agreement or approval from the Ministry of Labour.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-07 Hours of Work

3. Qualifying federal employees must receive a day off work and be paid at their regular rate for Family Day under the Canada Labour Code and Holidays Act.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-08 Holiday Pay

Chapter 02 - Labour and Employment Standards

4. Ontario employees may be unpaid during their vacation from work if they receive 4% of their gross earnings in lieu of vacation each pay (or 6% with 5+ years of service).

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-09 Vacation Pay

5. An employee who permanently terminates employment during the year is owed accrued vacation for time earned but not taken during the year.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-09 Vacation Pay

Topic: 02-10 Termination Pay

6. British Columbia senior executive employees may be paid on a monthly basis.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-12 Timing of Payroll Payments

7. Ontario senior executive employees may be paid on a monthly basis.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-12 Timing of Payroll Payments

8. Quebec senior executive employees may be paid on a monthly basis.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-12 Timing of Payroll Payments

9. Ontario employees are entitled to one day off with pay to get married.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-14 Leaves of Absence

10. Quebec employees are entitled to one day off with pay to get married.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-14 Leaves of Absence

11. A Quebec employer can offer an entry level wage of $12 per hour to new adult employees who do not serve liquor.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Learning Objective: 02-02 Explain how employer policies may affect payroll administration.

Topic: 02-05 Quebec

Topic: 02-15 Employer Policies

12. An Ontario employer can offer an entry level wage of $12 per hour to new adult employees who do not serve liquor.

FALSE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Learning Objective: 02-02 Explain how employer policies may affect payroll administration.

Topic: 02-03 Ontario

Topic: 02-15 Employer Policies

13. A British Columbia employer can choose to pay overtime after 35 hours per week and 7 hours per day.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Learning Objective: 02-02 Explain how employer policies may affect payroll administration.

Topic: 02-06 Overtime

Topic: 02-15 Employer Policies

14. Payroll professionals are responsible for staying up to date with changes in legislation affecting their organization.

TRUE

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-04 Identify sources for updated standards.

Topic: 02-17 Information Sources

Multiple Choice Questions

15. What is the minimum wage per hour that can be paid to an adult employee serving liquor directly to customers as part of their regular work in an Ontario business?

- A. $14.00
- B. $13.15
- C. $12.20
- D. $15.40
- E. $15.00

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-02 Minimum Wage Rates

Topic: 02-03 Ontario

16. What is the minimum wage per hour that can be paid to a student under the age of 18 doing paid work in their own home in an Ontario business?

- A. $14.00
- B. $13.15
- C. $12.20
- D. $15.40
- E. $15.00

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Hard

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-02 Minimum Wage Rates

Topic: 02-03 Ontario

17. What is the minimum wage per hour that can be paid to an adult employee NOT serving liquor directly to customers as part of their regular work in a British Columbia business?

- A. $14.60
- B. $13.15
- C. $12.20
- D. $13.95
- E. $15.00

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-02 Minimum Wage Rates

Topic: 02-04 British Columbia

18. An Ontario employee working a 4 hour shift is entitled to an unpaid break of the following duration:

- A. 45 minutes
- B. 30 minutes
- C. 20 minutes
- D. 15 minutes
- E. 0 minutes (no break is required)

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-07 Hours of Work

19. British Columbia employees must receive _____ as vacation after 5 years of service.

- A. 6% of gross pay
- B. 2 weeks
- C. 8% of gross pay
- D. 4% of gross pay
- E. 4 weeks

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-09 Vacation Pay

20. These are Statutory payroll deductions, required by law.

- A. Pension, Union Dues, and Taxes
- B. Family Support, Employment Insurance and Taxes
- C. Canada Pension, Employment Insurance and Taxes
- D. Canada Pension, Union Dues and Group Insurance Premiums
- E. Union Dues, Employment Insurance and Taxes

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-11 Deductions

Short Answer Questions

21. Explain the rules regarding overtime pay under the Canada Labour Code and briefly describe the 3 general exceptions to this rule.

Overtime must be paid at a rate of 1.5 times normal rate per hour of pay for any hours worked over 8 per day or 40 per week. Exceptions to this rule may be made if the employees are considered management or professionals, if the employer uses an averaging agreement (overtime would only apply to hours exceeding an average of 40 per week), or if there is a modified work schedule which is standard for the employment.

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-06 Overtime

22. A Quebec employee who has completed 90 days of employment is asked to work on Canada Day in a manufacturing plant. Her normal rate of pay is $20 per hour. How much would this employee receive for each hour worked on Canada Day? Explain your answer and the calculation.

Employees who work on a statutory holiday are entitled to receive their normal rate of pay plus a premium of 1.5 times the rate for hours worked, if they have completed 30 days of employment prior to the holiday. In Quebec, Canada Day is a Statutory Holiday. This employee would be entitled to receive $50 per hour for work on Canada Day ($20 regular rate plus a premium of $30 per hour representing 1.5 times the normal rate).

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Hard

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-08 Holiday Pay

23. What are the minimum contents of a statement of earnings under federal legislation?

Under federal legislation, at minimum, employees must be provided with a statement of earnings that outlines the period of time for which earnings are being paid, the number and type of hours (such as straight, overtime, holiday, etc), the rate of wage of each type of hours or the salary amount for the period, and the net pay. Statements must also include enough detail to allow the employee to identify the purpose and amounts of each payment.

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-13 Statement of Earnings

24. Explain the differences between Federal and Ontario legislation regarding Pregnancy/Maternity Leave.

Under both employees are able to take up to 17 weeks of unpaid leave. Federal employees must have worked for 6 consecutive months and give 4 weeks' notice prior to the due date or intended leave. Ontario employees only need to have worked 13 (not consecutive) weeks and give 2 weeks written notice prior to the date of leave. Federal employees must provide a certificate from a medical practitioner whereas Ontario employees only need provide one if requested by the employer. Federal legislation also restricts the timing of the leave to occur no earlier than 11 weeks before the due date and no later than 17 weeks after.

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-01 Understand the impact of labour and employment standards on payroll calculation.

Topic: 02-14 Leaves of Absence

25. Do employment standard minimums restrict the ability of employers to offer competitive wages and benefits? Explain.

Employment standards minimums outline only the minimum required by law to protect employees. Employers are able to exceed these minimums in order to offer more attractive compensation packages if they choose. If employer policy is better than employment standards minimums, the policies will supersede the legislation.

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Medium

Learning Objective: 02-02 Explain how employer policies may affect payroll administration.

Topic: 02-15 Employer Policies

26. What happens if a Collective Bargaining Agreement is in place that outlines different terms and conditions than the relevant employment standard minimums?

The Collective Bargaining Agreement must be followed when administering the payroll unless the terms and conditions are less advantageous to the employee than the minimum legislated standard. In the case where terms and conditions are different, whichever is the most advantageous to the employee must be followed.

Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Difficulty: Easy

Learning Objective: 02-03 Identify the impact of a collective bargaining agreement on payroll administration.

Topic: 02-16 Collective Bargaining