5. Mona inherits her mother's personal residence, which she converts to a furnished rental house. These changes should affect the amount of ad valorem property taxes levied on the properties.
- True
 - False

ANSWER: True

RATIONALE: Conversion from residential to rental use will increase the taxes. Furthermore, Mona's mother may have had a senior citizen exemption on the property, which will no longer be appropriate. Lastly, the furnishings in the rental house could now be subject to an ad valorem tax on personalty.

 - c. A tax holiday issued 10 years ago has expired.
 - d. A bankrupt motel is acquired by the Red Cross and is to be used to provide housing for homeless persons.
 - e. None of these.

ANSWER: c

RATIONALE: Although the farm was probably subject to reduced valuation (due to its agricultural use), it will now be fully exempt since it is owned by a church (choice a.). Property that is subject to a conservation easement is usually appraised at a lower value (choice b.). The expiration of a tax holiday means that the property involved can now be taxed (choice c.). The motel has been converted from business property to exempt charitable use (choice d.).

 - c. A public school is razed and turned into a city park.
 - d. A local university sells a dormitory that will be converted for use as an apartment building.
 - e. None of these.

ANSWER: a

RATIONALE: Choice a. will decrease it after the tax holiday is granted. Choice b. will increase taxes because the church was abandoned and previously exempt. Choice c. converts one tax-exempt property (i.e., school) into another (i.e., public park). Choice d. probably places the building on the tax rolls because it is no longer owned by a tax-exempt institution.

 - c. To take advantage of the per donee annual exclusion.
 - d. To shift income to higher bracket donees.
 - e. None of these.

ANSWER: c

RATIONALE: The per donee annual exclusion is available only for gift tax purposes (choice c.). Ideally, gifts should involve property that is expected to appreciate in value (choice b.). A higher unified tax credit is not available for gift tax purposes (choice a.). Usually the donor is trying to shift future income to lower bracket donees (choice d.).

- a. Can piggyback to the Federal version.
- b. Cannot apply to visiting nonresidents.
- c. Can decouple from the Federal version.
- d. Can provide occasional amnesty programs.
- e. None of these.

ANSWER: b

RATIONALE: Many states piggyback to the Federal system (choice a.). Some states, due to revenue shortfalls, have decoupled from various provisions of the Federal version (choice c.). The “jock tax,” although much criticized, is very much in use (choice b.). Some states have had more than one amnesty period (choice d.).

80. Two years ago, State Y enacted a new income tax credit for college prep materials. The credit is available to individuals and is equal to 40% of the cost of the items. The credit may not exceed $50 in any year. State Y's director of finance has discovered this year that the amount of credit claimed is far higher than expected. Which principle of good tax policy might not have been considered in designing this tax that caused the original cost estimate to be too low?
- a. Equity.
 - b. Simplicity.
 - c. Economy in collection.
 - d. Minimum tax gap.

ANSWER: d

RATIONALE: If not well defined, many expenses might qualify as college prep materials. Also, some taxpayers may just claim a credit of $1 to $50 thinking that they likely have some purchase, such as books or magazines, that qualify or that they will not be caught for improperly claiming a small tax credit for which they do not qualify.

ANSWER: The rent charged by Paige is not “arms length”; as such, Citron Corporation’s rent deduction is $60,000 (not $80,000). The $20,000 difference is a nondeductible dividend distribution. For Paige, the change merely requires reclassification. Instead of $80,000 of rent income, she has $60,000 of rent income and $20,000 of dividend income.

Roy sells the real estate in 2019 for $1,200,000 of which $900,000 is attributable to the improvements. When is Roy taxed on the improvements made by Drab Corporation?

ANSWER: Roy is not subject to taxation on the improvements until he disposes of the property (i.e., 2019). After a controversial Supreme Court decision years ago, Congress clarified the tax law to make it more consistent with the wherewithal to pay concept.

101. The Federal income tax is based on a pay-as-you-go system and has become a “mass tax.” Explain this statement.

ANSWER: The pay-as-you-go system is present in the wage and other withholding procedures. In the case of self-employed persons, it is manifested in the required quarterly payments for estimated taxes. The income tax became a mass tax during World War II when its coverage was extended to 74% of the population (from less than 6% in 1939).

102. Due to population change, Goose Creek School District has decided to close one of its high schools. Since it has no further need of the property, the school is listed for sale. The two bids it receives are as follows:

United Methodist Church	$1,700,000
Planet Motors	1,600,000

The United Methodist Church would use the property to establish a sectarian middle school. Planet, a well-known car dealership, would revamp the property and operate it as a branch location.

If you were a member of the School District board, what factors would you consider in evaluating the two bids?

ANSWER: Although the bid from the United Methodist Church is higher, several other factors need to be considered. Does, for example, Goose Creek School District exempt property owned by churches from its ad valorem taxes? If so, losing this property from the tax base could prove very costly over the long run. Also, it is probable that income-producing property (such as a car dealership) would be taxed at a higher rate than that owned by a nonprofit organization (a school operated by a church). This assumes, of course, that the school would be taxed at all. The auto dealership also would generate sales tax.

ANSWER: The real estate taxes probably will increase for several reasons. The capital improvements and the conversion from residential to rental will trigger the increase. Furthermore, the furnishings may generate an ad valorem tax on personalty. (Depending on applicable law, furniture might not be subject to tax unless used for business purposes—such as in this case.)

ANSWER: The decrease probably came in 2017 when Deborah reached age 65. The increases probably occurred in 2018 when she added the pool and in 2019 when the residence was converted to rental property with the property reassessed due to the change in use and/or removal of the homestead exemption.

ANSWER:

- a. Such a holiday is designed to attract new industry to the area. This will bring more jobs and growth in consumption. On the other hand, if the tax holiday is too generous, this places a strain on available public revenue. The result could be that schools and capital maintenance (roads, public services) will suffer.
- b. The hotel occupancy tax and car rental surcharges are popular because they mainly impact visitors. Also, they can generate considerable revenue to finance major capital improvements. If these taxes become excessive, however, they could discourage major events (such as conventions).
- c. Such holidays are very popular with both merchants and consumers and serve the social need of defraying some of the costs of sending children to school. Once established, however, they are difficult to get rid of. Thus, they become an annual drain on sales tax revenue.

107. What is a severance tax? How productive can it be in terms of generating revenue?

ANSWER: A severance tax is one imposed when natural resources (e.g., oil, gas, iron ore, coal) are extracted. It is based on the notion that the state has an interest in such resources. For some states, the revenue from severance taxes can be significant. Alaska, for example, relies heavily on its severance taxes and has been able to avoid both a state income tax and a general sales tax.

111. Virtually all state income tax returns contain checkoff boxes for donations to various causes. On what grounds has this procedure been criticized?

ANSWER: In many cases, the procedure is overused (i.e., a multiplicity of boxes). This overuse adds complexity to the return. Also, in most cases, the donation is being drawn from any income tax refund that might be due. Thus, taxpayers may not fully appreciate that they are paying for such checkoffs.

- a. Decouple what would be part of the piggyback format of the state income tax.
- b. Tax amnesty provisions.
- c. Internet shaming.

ANSWER:

- a. The decoupling process is easily accomplished regarding new Federal tax changes that have never taken effect at the state level. Taxpayers are not apt to miss what they never have enjoyed.
- b. Tax amnesty provisions generate considerable revenue. It also unmask many taxpayers who have not previously paid taxes. Now that the taxing jurisdiction is aware of their existence, they will tend to pay taxes in the future.
- c. By use of a public Internet site, the taxing authority posts the names of those taxpayers that are delinquent as to various taxes (e.g., sales, income). This public humiliation (or threat of) very often results in compliance.

- a. Contains revenue offsets.
- b. Includes a sunset provision.

ANSWER:

- a. Ideally, to achieve revenue neutrality, all tax cuts should be accompanied by revenue offsets.
- b. A sunset provision does not account for the immediate revenue losses generated by a tax cut. It merely provides that such losses will not continue beyond a specified date when the tax cut expires and the former tax law is reinstated.

118. The tax law allows, under certain conditions, deferral of gain recognition for involuntary conversions.

- a. What is the justification for this relief measure?
- b. What happens if the proceeds are not entirely reinvested?

ANSWER:

- a. By recognizing that the taxpayer's relative economic situation has not changed and that he or she lacks the wherewithal to pay a tax, any recognition of realized gain is deferred.
- b. If the proceeds from an involuntary conversion are not fully reinvested in property that is similar or related in service or use, recognized gain results. Such recognized gain cannot exceed realized gain and will be limited to the amount of the proceeds not reinvested. Recognition is based on the notion that the taxpayer now has the wherewithal to pay the tax that results.

- a. An increase in the amount of the standard deduction.
- b. Dollar and percentage limitations on the deduction of personal casualty losses in Federally declared disaster areas.
- c. Availability of interest and penalties for taxpayer noncompliance.

ANSWER:

- a. An increase in the amount of the standard deduction reduces the number of taxpayers who choose to itemize their personal deductions. This, in turn, reduces the deductions the IRS has to check.
- b. Limitations placed on casualty and theft losses curtail the number of taxpayers who can claim the deduction.
- c. The imposition of extra penalties, in addition to the tax owed, definitely deters taxpayer noncompliance.

121. Congress reacts to judicial decisions that interpret the tax law in different ways. When it approves of a decision, Congress may act to amend the Code to incorporate the holding. When it disapproves, Congress may amend the Code to nullify its effect. Give an example of each one of these congressional reactions.

ANSWER: Congress approved of the judicial conclusion that most stock dividends should be nontaxable and amended the Code to this effect. However, it disagreed as to when leasehold improvements should be taxed to a lessor. Consistent with the wherewithal to pay concept, the improvements are to be taxed on the termination of the lease. Thus, Congress overturned a judicial holding that would have taxed such improvements in the year they are made by the lessee.

122. Ultimately, most taxes are paid by individuals. Explain what this means in terms of income and payroll taxes paid by a corporation.

ANSWER:

A corporation pays many types of taxes, but like any other expenditure, some of these taxes are ultimately paid by an individual. Income taxes are included in the price the corporation charges for goods and services. Or all or part might result in reduced earnings affecting investors or through reduced wages affecting employees. The payroll taxes paid by the corporate employer are likely borne by workers in the form of lower wages. That is, if the employer did not have to pay the taxes, it could pay higher wages to employees. These taxes might also be borne by customers and investors.
