

Multiple Choice

1. Another word for biomedical medicine.

- A. Allopathic
- B. Natural
- C. Physiologic
- D. Biotic

Answer: A

Page: 32

2. A belief of disease causation where it is thought illness is caused by misbehavior or intervention of a supernatural being.

- A. Personalistic theory
- B. Naturalistic theory
- C. Germ theory
- D. Humoral theory

Answer: A

Page: 32

3. A theory of disease causation where illness results from upset of the balance between the person and environment.

- A. Personalistic theory
- B. Naturalistic theory
- C. Germ theory
- D. Humoral theory

Answer: B

Pages: 32–33

4. Humoral, ayurvedic, and vitalistic approaches are examples of:

- A. personalistic theory
- B. naturalistic theory
- C. allopathic theory
- D. humoral theory

Answer: B

Page: 34

5. An ancient theoretical belief that our bodies have four important fluids that must be balanced for health.

- A. Personalistic theory
- B. Allopathic theory
- C. Germ theory
- D. Humoral theory

Answer: D

Page: 34

6. The vital force in ayurvedic medicine.

- A. Vita
- B. Prana
- C. Chi
- D. Doshas

Answer: B

Page: 35

7. In ayurvedic medicine there are ___ chankras.

- A. 6
- B. 7
- C. 8
- D. 12

Answer: B

Page: 36

8. The vital force in Chinese medicine.

- A. Vita
- B. Prana
- C. Chi
- D. Doshas

Answer: C

Page: 36

9. Theory of illness wherein it is thought that microorganisms cause disease.

- A. Personalistic theory
- B. Naturalistic theory
- C. Germ theory
- D. Humoral theory

Answer: C

Page: 37

10. All of the following are elements of Campinha-Bacote's Process of Cultural Competence in the Delivery of Health Care Services model except:

- A. cultural awareness
- B. cultural knowledge
- C. cultural indoctrination
- D. cultural desire

Answer: C

Page: 40

11. The four rings in the Purnell model do not include:

- A. community
- B. neighbors
- C. family
- D. person

Answer: B

Page: 42

True/False

12. Holistic medicine is sometimes viewed as being unscientific.

Answer: True

Page: 38