

1

In the mirror test of self-recognition, most infants touched their own nose by:

<https://selldocx.com/products/test-bank-real-estate-law-1e-cowie>

(A) 21 months

(B) 15 months

(C) 12 months

(D) 9 months

Answer:

(A) 21 months

2

Self-concept consists of:

(A) self-image

(B) self-esteem

(C) ideal self

(D) all of the above

Answer:

(D) all of the above

3

Social referencing means:

(A) the infant looks at the parent/caregiver before responding

(B) the infant looks at the parent/caregiver for reassurance

(C) the infant appears undecided about which adult to approach

(D) the infant looks at another infant to see how that baby will respond

Answer:

(A) the infant looks at the parent/caregiver before responding

4

Children who are emotionally skilled are more likely to:

(A) have leadership qualities

(B) lead peers to be antisocial

(C) manipulate others

(D) be self-conscious about their social image

Answer:

(A) have leadership qualities

5

A key task for the development of the child's understanding of another person's mind is:

- (A) self-awareness
- (B) the capacity to engage in pretend play
- (C) knowing the difference between reality and pretence

(D) all of the above

Answer:

(D) all of the above

6

At the transition from childhood to adolescence, self-esteem:

- (A) is no longer important
- (B) typically increases
- (C) typically decreases

(D) remains unchanged

Answer:

(C) typically decreases