3. In recent years, Congress has been relatively successful in simplifying the Internal Revenue Code.
- True
 - False

ANSWER: False

RATIONALE: Each year, the Internal Revenue Code becomes more and more complex. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 simplified certain areas of the tax law (e.g., a flat corporate tax rate; eliminating some individual deductions), while making other areas more complex (e.g., the deduction for qualified business income).

89. Interpret the following citation: 64-1 USTC ¶9618, aff'd in 344 F.2d 966.
- a. A U.S. Tax Court Small Cases Division decision that was affirmed on appeal.
 - b. A U.S. Tax Court decision that was affirmed on appeal.
 - c. A U.S. District Court decision that was affirmed on appeal.
 - d. A U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals decision that was affirmed on appeal.
 - e. None of the above.

ANSWER:

c

RATIONALE:

USTCs report decisions of the U.S. District Courts, Court of Federal Claims, Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court. They do not report the decisions of the U.S. Tax Court. West's F.2d series reports the decisions of the U.S. Claims Court (before October 1982) and the Circuit Courts of Appeal. They do not report the decisions of the U.S. Tax Court, U.S. District Courts, and the Supreme Court. In the light of these conditions, what are the possibilities?

- Choice a. is not possible, since there is no appeal from the Small Cases Divisions of the U.S. Tax Court.
- Choice b. is not possible because the USTC series does not contain the decision of the U.S. Tax Court.
- Choice d. is not possible since an appeal from the Circuit Court of Appeals would have been to the U.S. Supreme Court.

What the citation represents, therefore, is the affirmation of an appeal of a U.S. District Court decision (reported in the USTCs) by a Circuit Court of Appeals (reported in the F.2d series), or choice c.

 - c. A nonacquiescence is published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.
 - d. The IRS does not issue nonacquiescences to adverse decisions that are not appealed.
 - e. All of the above are correct.

ANSWER: c

RATIONALE: A nonacquiescence is not issued in the Federal Register (so a. is incorrect); nonacquiescences can be issued for any court decision, not just U.S. Tax Court decisions (so b. is incorrect); the IRS can issue a nonacquiescence whether it appeals a decision or not (so d. is incorrect).

96. What are Treasury Department Regulations?

ANSWER: Regulations are issued by the U.S. Treasury Department under authority granted by Congress. Interpretive by nature, they provide taxpayers with considerable guidance on the meaning and application of the Internal Revenue Code. Regulations may be issued in proposed, temporary, or final form. Regulations carry considerable authority as the official interpretation of tax statutes. They are an important factor to consider in complying with the tax law. Courts generally ignore Proposed Regulations.

97. Compare Revenue Rulings with Revenue Procedures.

ANSWER: Revenue Rulings are official pronouncements of the National Office of the IRS. They typically provide one or more examples of how the IRS would apply a law to specific fact situations. Like Regulations, Revenue Rulings are designed to provide interpretation of the tax law. However, they do not carry the same legal force and effect as Regulations and usually deal with more restricted problems. Regulations are approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, whereas Revenue Rulings generally are not.

Revenue Procedures are issued in the same manner as Revenue Rulings, but deal with the internal management practices and procedures of the IRS. Familiarity with these procedures can increase taxpayer compliance and help the IRS administer the tax laws more efficiently. A taxpayer's failure to follow a Revenue Procedure can result in unnecessary delay or, in a discretionary situation, can cause the IRS to decline to act on behalf of the taxpayer.

99. What is a Technical Advice Memorandum?

ANSWER: The National Office of the IRS releases Technical Advice Memoranda (TAMs) weekly. TAMs resemble letter rulings in that they give the IRS's determination of an issue. However, they differ in several respects. Letter rulings deal with proposed transactions and are issued to taxpayers at their request. In contrast, TAMs deal with completed transactions. Furthermore, TAMs arise from questions raised by IRS personnel during audits and are issued by the National Office of the IRS to its field personnel. TAMs are often requested for questions relating to exempt organizations and employee plans. TAMs are not officially published and may not be cited or used as precedent.

100. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of the Small Cases Division of the U.S. Tax Court.

ANSWER: There is no appeal from the Small Cases Division. The jurisdiction of the Small Cases Division is limited to cases involving amounts of $50,000 or less. The proceedings of the Small Cases Division are informal (e.g., no necessity for the taxpayer to be represented by a lawyer or other tax adviser). Special trial judges rather than Tax Court judges preside over these proceedings. The decisions of the Small Cases Division are not precedents for any other court decision and are not reviewable by any higher court. Proceedings can be more timely and less expensive in the Small Cases Division. Some of these cases can now be found on the U.S. Tax Court Internet Website.

101. Distinguish between the jurisdiction of the U.S. Tax Court and a U.S. District Court.

ANSWER: The U.S. Tax Court hears only tax cases and is the most popular tax forum. The U.S. District Court hears a wide variety of nontax cases, including drug crimes and other Federal violations, as well as tax cases. Some Tax Court justices have been appointed from IRS or Treasury Department positions. For these reasons, some people suggest that the U.S. Tax Court has more expertise in tax matters.

Chapter 02: Working with the Tax Law

102. How do treaties fit within tax sources?

ANSWER: The U.S signs certain tax treaties (sometimes called tax conventions) with foreign countries to render mutual assistance in tax enforcement and to avoid double taxation. Tax legislation enacted in 1988 provided that neither a tax law nor a tax treaty takes general precedence. Thus, when there is a direct conflict with the Internal Revenue Code and a treaty, the most recent item will take precedence. A taxpayer must disclose on the tax return any position where a treaty overrides a tax law. There is a $1,000 penalty per failure to disclose for individuals and a $10,000 per failure penalty for corporations.
