

Student name: _____

1) The perspective that focuses on prevention, intervention and drug treatment is the

- A) Moral-legal perspective
- B) Psycho-social perspective
- C) Spiritual perspective

D) None of these are correct

2) The perspective that attempts to adapt the environment to meet the needs of the individual, is the

- A) Moral-legal perspective
- B) Social-cultural perspective
- C) Medical-health perspective

D) Existential
perspective

3) Alcohol is

- A) not a drug
- B) often overlooked in terms of damages from abuse, binge drinking, and alcoholism

C) not as bad on
you as hard drugs

D) a central
nervous system stimulant

4) The Harvard School of Mental Health reported that

- A) 40-45% of college students binge drink
- B) Very few women binge drink
- C) Binge drinking is defined as 2 cocktails over dinner

D) All of these are
correct

5) Potential consequences of alcohol consumption by college students includes

- A) Property damage
- B) Suicide

- C) Accidents
- D) All of these are correct

6) According to this chapter, which statement is true regarding "the supply side approach" to the drug problems?

- A) It has reduced drug use
- B) It has increased drug prices and reduced availability
- C) A supply side approach alone is ineffective

- D) The supply side approach is coordinated with the demand side approach

7) According to this chapter, which of the following is true?

- A) Drug problems of people of color are often ignored
- B) People of color are at risk for alcohol/drug problems due to socioeconomic inequities and injustices

- C) People of color have been blamed for drug problems
- D) All of these are correct.

8) The most dangerous time of the year for college students, especially freshman, is

- A) the first six weeks of college
- B) summer school

- C) graduation
- D) holidays

9) An example of a "simplistic" approach to drug abuse, is

- A) "just say no"
- B) peer pressure
- C) tough love

D) stopping
gateway drugs like
marijuana

10) The historical association of drugs with minority groups, includes

- A) Heroin with African-Americans
- B) Opium with the Asians
- C) Alcohol with urban Catholic immigrants

D) All of these are
correct

11) Psychedelics are being researched to treat

- A) treatment resistant depression (TRD)
- B) birth defects

C) the coronavirus
D) only women in labor

12) The most problematic increase in use for young adults, has been

- A) Marijuana
- B) Cocaine

C) Vaping
D) CBD

13) The legalization of marijuana, has

- A) created a concern as research has been limited
- B) had no impact on abuse
- C) reduced use by young adults

D) caused
decreases in use by all ages, young and old

Answer Key

Test name: Drugs in Perspective Author:

- 1) B
- 2) B
- 3) B
- 4) A
- 5) D
- 6) C
- 7) D
- 8) A
- 9) A
- 10) D
- 11) A
- 12) C
- 13) A